Nakotah helped inspire and founded The Lightning Boy Foundation, whose mission is to nurture and empower out Native youth through cultural programming. Nakotah LaRance (Hopi-Tewa) (1989-2020) was a 9-time World Hoop Dance Champion, award-winning actor and humanitarian.

III. COMPETITION PROCESS & SCORING

Three judges evaluate the Eligible Entrants during the competition. Each judge is required to provide a score for each of five judging categories (see section IV, "Judging Criteria"). Within each of the five categories, scoring will be based on a ten point scoring system. One is the lowest score given and Ten is the highest possible score that can be awarded by a judge in a particular category. The maximum possible score from each judge is 50, and the total maximum possible combined score from all three judges is 150.

Round 1 – 150 possible points

Tiny Tot Division – Open category – no scores awarded

Youth Division – The top ten Eligible Entrants advance to Round 2

Teen Division – The top ten Eligible Entrants advance to Round 2

Collegiate Division – The top six Eligible Entrants advance to Round 2

Round 2 – 150 possible points

ALL FINALISTS BEGIN WITH A CLEAN SCORE CARD. Points will not be carried over from Round 1.

Teen Division - The top five Eligible Entrants advance to Final Round

Collegiate Division - The top three Eligible Entrants advance to Final Round

AGAIN, ALL FINALISTS BEGIN WITH A CLEAN SCORE CARD. Points will not be carried over from Rounds 1 or 2. Final rankings will be determined during this final round of competition.

Teen Division – The five finalists will compete to determine final rankings

Collegiate Division - The three finalists will compete to determine final rankings

Songs for Eligible Entrants will rotate between the Northern and Southern drums for the first two rounds. You may select either the Northern or Southern drum in the final round or Eligible Entrants can elect to provide their own singer.

Points and Score Sheets

The Score Sheets for each round represent the total tallies of the judges' scores for each division and are considered public information. Each Eligible Entrant may view his or her score after each round. Eligible Entrants are not allowed to view individual judges score sheets.

Ties and Tiebreakers

Tied scores in Rounds 1 and 2 do not need to be broken, unless the tiebreaker would determine which of the tied Eligible Entrants would advance to the next round. When tied scores must be broken to determine which Eligible Entrant will advance, the lowest judge's score will be dropped and the scores will be recalculated. The Eligible Entrant with the highest aggregate score based on the four highest scores will be considered the winner of the tie-breaker. Should the scores remain tied after dropping the lowest score, the judges will convene and select the winner of the tie-breaker via secret ballot – each judge will vote for one Eligible Entrant. In the event of tied scores during the Final Round of competition, the tie must be broken to determine the final rankings. The tie will be broken using the same method described above, except when a tie is between 1st and 2nd place. Should the top-placing Eligible Entrants in any division during the Final Round receive tied scores, the winner will be determined by Dance Off. In a Dance Off, the tied Eligible Entrants will perform again and the judges' scores from the Dance Off will determine the final rankings.

The Contest's judges hope that Eligible Entrants will consider their routines from this perspective. Eligible Entrants are encouraged to give careful thought – in attire, personal style, and performance – to the traditions and values represented by this important event. Eligible Entrants are artists and can respectfully express their culture and style through their dance as Nakotah did through his fusion of traditional and contemporary moves.

Following are the five categories from which Eligible Entrants will be evaluated:

1. Precision:

- a) Each Eligible Entrant must pass through each hoop they bring into the arena at least one time.
- b) Hoops should not unintentionally fall to the ground.
- c) Once a design is complete, it should not fall apart.
- d) Eligible Entrants must catch hoops when they are thrown in the air or spun.

2. Timing/Rhythm:

- a) This is a Hoop "Dancing" Contest. Feet should continuously keep time to the drum.
- b) Eligible Entrant's movement is essential.
- c) Bells, tinklers or deer hooves help the judges assess your rhythm and, therefore, are required.
- d) Transitions between movements should be smooth.

3. Showmanship:

- a) Presentation should be directed to audience.
- b) Degree of difficulty will be taken into account.
- c) If routine is finished and music continues, Eligible Entrants should dance to the end of song.

4. Creativeness/Originality:

- a) Points accumulate with more designs.

b) Points accumulate with designs originated by an Eligible Entrants and not previously presented.

5. Speed:

a) This category is related directly to rapid drum and dance coordination.

Eligible Entrants will be penalized for going over the time limit. There is NO penalty for going under the time limit. A large time clock will be visible in the arena.

The judges' decision will be final! Good sportsmanship is expected and appreciated.

- No taped or mechanical props will be allowed – this means you will not be able to tape your hoops together in any way, shape, or form. You will not be allowed to use streamers, balls, clamps, etc. You will be required to dance using ONLY the hoops you bring into your immediate dance area.
- No drugs or alcohol – this means any Eligible Entrant using drugs of alcohol to "enhance" their performance will be immediately removed from the competition and from the grounds of the Museum of Indians Arts & Culture, Milner Plaza and Museum of International Folk Art. Any violation of the above rules will disqualify you from the entire Contest.
